

CONVENTION 2020

Make a Donation at Convention

Bring your old cellphones to recycle and donate!

A collection bin will be located at Convention 2020 for delegates to donate used cell phones to the SaskTel Phones for a Fresh Start program which provides free access to cellular services for those fleeing domestic violence through one of 22 Provincial Association of Transition Houses and Services of Saskatchewan (PATHS) associated transition house or shelter. Look for the collection bin at Convention!

Any wireless phone (cellphone/smart phone), regardless of the brand, model, age, or carrier, is accepted including non-working phones. Wireless chargers, batteries, and accessories are also accepted. Please note your donation can't be reclaimed. (The program cannot accept cordless phones, pagers, two-way radios or non-handheld devices.)

Before you drop off your phone in the designated collection bin, take the following steps:

- Be sure to deactivate it; and
- Remove all your personal info like contacts, phone numbers, photos, and SIM cards.

Donations of feminine hygiene products

A collection for the donation of feminine hygiene products will also take place at convention, with donations going to support The Elizabeth Fry Society of Saskatchewan.

The Elizabeth Fry Society of Saskatchewan is a non-profit organization committed to working with women and their families before, during, and after their involvement with the court or prison systems. They offer programs and services in the courts, within the prisons, and to women in the community. All programs, services and resources are offered free of charge and without a referral. The Elizabeth Fry Society of Saskatchewan's office is located in Saskatoon at Station 20 West.
